Two people in this horse-drawn carriage were hurt when a car slammed into it in downtown Houston

HOUSTON (KTRK) -- A car hit a horse-drawn carriage in downtown Houston overnight and sent two people to the hospital.

It happened on Smith near Clay around 11:30pm Saturday.

A car rear-ended the carriage and both of the passengers inside the carriage were hurt.

Most of the damage was concentrated on one rear wheel. The carriage driver and horse were not injured.
